

Your Support of the Inmate Art Show Helps Crime Victims

The Maryland Crime Victims' Resource Center, Inc. is a 510(c)(3) statewide non-profit organization that provides comprehensive free services to crime victims and their families. Roberta and Vince Roper founded the Stephanie Roper Committee and Foundation, Inc. in 1982 in tribute to their slain daughter, Stephanie. In 2002, the sister organizations merged to form the Maryland Crime Victims' Resource Center, Inc. (MCVRC), which today provide an array of free support and legal services to enable crime victims to rebuild lives shattered by criminal violence.

MCVRC is honored to have been selected to participate and benefit from this unique Inmate Art Show, sponsored by the Maryland Department of Public Safety & Correctional Services and the Maryland State Arts Council. MCVRC believes that this event can generate greater inmate and public awareness of crime's consequences to victims and their families, and provide restorative justice to those harmed by crime.

The inmate art will be exhibited and available for sale through a live auction at the Baltimore opening and purchases of other work on a first come basis. Selected reproduced inmate art and art by Stephanie Roper will be available in note card and holiday form to enhance MCVRC's programs of support.
